Directors Note

What if...

What if you, young aspiring actor, what if you were given a chance to act in a scene from your favourite show, your all-time favourite movie, a scene from a play that seems intimidating and at the same time a challenge you wish to take on?

This was my personal invitation as a facilitator to all the young, talented actors to dare and choose their favourite texts to perform, without fear, and here they are, in front of tonight's audience.

This show consists of a collection of scenes for one and or two performers along with songs from famous musicals selected with love and courage from the members of our Youth Theatre group from Mean Girls to Hamlet, rehearsed and performed amidst stressful exams, challenging bus schedules and long commutes.

Enjoy!
